Re: Consumer Complaint 2025-9075277
Rebecca Levinson v. Potomac Electric Power Company

Dear Ms. Levinson:

This letter is in response to your formal complaint which, pursuant to 15 DCMR § 323.2 has been referred to the Office of the General Counsel on February 25, 2025, for formal adjudication.¹ The matter has been assigned to Mr. Noel Antonio, who will serve as the Hearing Officer. Mr. Antonio will contact you within 14 days to schedule the necessary proceedings or to request further information.

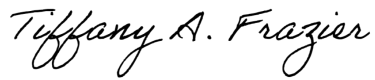

Please be advised that the address you have provided on your complaint is your official address of record and all correspondence will be sent there. If your address changes for any reason, then it is your responsibility to notify the Commission in writing of your new address. Failure to notify the Commission of any change in address shall be deemed consent to receive notice by way of posting the correspondence on the Commission's website at www.dcpssc.org/edocket/searchdockets.asp.

You may represent yourself, obtain counsel at your own expense, or request representation through the Office of the People's Counsel by calling (202) 727-3071. If you choose to be represented, then please make the necessary arrangements well in advance of any scheduled proceeding.

¹ This provision can be found in the Commission's "Consumer Bill of Rights" which was provided to you by the Office of Consumer Services during your informal complaint resolution.

If you have any questions regarding this notice, please contact me at (202) 626-0568 or tfrazier@psc.dc.gov.

Sincerely,
